

Acting Improvisation

Take risks and trust your instincts! By using improv games, groups focus and awareness, listening and responding, along with creative play. Games are tailored for beginners or advanced actors.

Musical Theatre

Explore the art of marrying music and drama to effectively achieve great emotional impact. Working with a professional theatre director, musical director or cast member, groups are coached through basic warm-ups and exercises. Several participants are given the opportunity to present prepared material for critique and analysis, focusing on musical and acting interpretation.

Step By Step ( Dance Groups)

Groups have the opportunity to experience different Broadway dance styles .This session can be taught by a performer from the show the group is seeing and features choreography from that show .Other options for this workshop include a professional dance audition or a specific type of dance.

Instrumental Clinic

Place your students directly in the world of a Broadway pit musician, playing for Broadway's best performers! Working with a Broadway musician, your students will sight read and prepare a special performance of a selected piece of Broadway music provided by Music Theatre International. After 90 minutes of work on the piece, a Broadway performer will discuss interpretation of the material and then perform it, accompanied by your students.

Acting Shakespeare

Through simple script analysis, participants demystify aspects of classical theatre. Shakespeare's plays were written in a time when directors were rarely used, so special attention was given to the clues and hints concealed within the writing. These "hidden directions" help performers to select acting beats and character intentions.

Theatre Dance and Movement

Choose from the current crop of Broadway musicals and then learn a combination from that show. You'll have the opportunity to emulate what you see on stage. Or you can experience the pace, pressure and exhilaration of a dance audition. Gain insight into what the audition process is all about and how training and commitment can help you succeed. Both programs can be adjusted to your group's level of expertise.

Acting Auditions

Come prepared with a monologue of your choice or read scenes from the show you are seeing. Professional actors will advise you on acting choices, vocal techniques and character development. Their wisdom knowledge will give you tools for success.

Choral Clinic

Your show choir will have the opportunity to perform their prepared pieces for a Broadway performer or musical director along with a choreographer. Using musical theatre techniques and expertise, they will help perfect your groups pieces and give them constructive feedback.

Making Music

Great for choral and vocal group! Students will learn techniques of vocal dynamics and acting through song while working with a Musical Director or Broadway performer on a piece of Broadway music. Explore the art of marrying music and drama to effectively achieve great emotional impact. Then, students have the opportunity to perform the piece they just learned along side a Broadway guest performer, followed by a question and answer session.
